HALIBURTON — ONTARIO

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1967

THIS WEEK'S PRESS RUN—2243

Established in 1882 as the Minden Echo & Haliburton Recorder

Businessmen Organize

For some time now it has been evident that a sizable segment of those who operate businesses in Haliburton and immediate area are far from satisfied with the treatment being meted out to this community. The fact that we were entirely ignored in the Ontario Centennial Booklet and the run-around that we are receiving in the matter of water and sewage are just two items of neglect that led to various consultations among those connected with business, which culminated in the desire for a pressure group who would endeavour to secure some action respecting these and other matters.

The meeting to see if it would be feasible to set up a Businessmen's Association was called for 8:15 p.m. on Thursday evening last in the Curling Rink, and despite the inclement weather 31 citizens were on hand to consider the proposal. Mr. J. A. Robertson acted as chairman and Mr. Glenn Austin as secretary. The Chairman gave an outline of the proposed setup of the association and the many things that it might give consideration to that would be for the benefit of this community.

A committee of seven was elected as an executive and from this committee a chairman and a secretary will be selected. This body will meet once a month and are empowered to call the association as a whole together whenever matters of sufficient importance arise.

The committee members elected by ballot are as follows: A. J. LaRue, John Smith, T. A. Irwin, Peter Curry, Grant Rea, Rex Boice and Glenn Austin.

The membership fee was set at $5.00 per business or individual and nearly everyone present paid their fee before leaving the meeting.

In our opinion the Haliburton Businessmen's Association should be a most active and successful organization.

Orange Lodge Church Parade

The County of Haliburton Orange Association held the annual County Church Parade at Gooderham on Sunday, June 11 at 3 p.m.

The members assembled at the Orange Hall and held a short parade, led by the Haliburton Legion Band, to the Gooderham United Church.

The Order of Service was conducted by Rev. Ken McAllister, followed by opening hymn "O Godward Christian Soldiers". The Scripture Reading was read by Bro. Glen Hodgson, M.P.P., of Haliburton, followed by prayer by Rev. Glenn Pitts of the Gooderham Pentecostal Church.

Mr. G. W. Barr, D.G.M., extended a welcome to everyone, mentioning several members who have been in the Order for 40 years or more: Bro. Chas. Hodgson, Clayton Hodgson, W. R. Curry, Mel McKnight and others.

Bro. Morgan Brown, Past Grand Master, of Peterborough was introduced as guest speaker. Mr. Brown delivered a forceful address on "Our Christian Faith".

The special service closed with the singing of the hymn "Faith Of Our Fathers".

Visitors were from Lindsay, Peterborough, Bancroft, Cameron and many other points.

OPP Report Busy Week

For the week of June 4 to June 10, Minden O.P.P. investigated four property damage accidents with damages totalling $885.00 and one personal injury accident with $1,000.00 damage sustained to the vehicle and two persons injured.

During this period 3,200 miles of provincial and county roads were patrolled resulting in 18 charges being laid under the Highway Traffic Act and seven charges under the Liquor Control Act.

Criminal investigations again kept the officers of Minden Detachment busy as they conducted 14 such investigations, broken down as follows: Break and Enter 3, Disturbances 4, Thefts 3, and Damage to Property 4.

This week we will deal with the law pertaining to the licensing of boats, and is as follows: The owner of a vessel that (a) does not exceed 15 tons, register tonnage or is a pleasure craft that does not exceed 20 tons, register tonnage and (b) is equipped whether permanently or temporarily with an outboard motor or motors of 10 horsepower in the aggregate, SHALL before the vessel is operated obtain a licence for the vessel from a Customs Officer. To apply for a boat licence write to the Department of Transport, Ottawa, Ontario. There is no charge for this licence. REMEMBER, you MUST license your boat if it has over a 10 h.p. outboard motor on it before operating it on water or be liable to a fine of up to $100.00.

WHAT DYSART COUNCIL DID

Dysart Council met on Monday morning with all members present. Following the presentation and passing of the minutes of the previous meeting the following accounts were approved, passed and signed: General $11,991.26, Road $28,059.42, Welfare $706.33. Welfare costs for the same period last year were $963.64.

A wrought iron railing is to be ordered for the library and installed at a price of $239.75.

Reception from the satellite Re-broadcasting Station C.K.V.R. T.V. which is presently located at Skyline Park has proven anything but satisfactory. Council have passed a motion requesting that the said Satellite be relocated south of the village of Eagle Lake.

It was resolved that a letter be directed to the Ontario Water Resources Commission about the new system of financing to be instigated by the province for water and sewage systems in small municipalities.

Dysart Council went on record as claiming the road across Lot 32, Concession 7, Dysart to and including the lakeshore 66 feet in width.

Choir Member Honoured

Last Sunday St. George's Anglican Choir had the pleasure of honouring Mrs. Madeline Austin who has served as a faithful choir member of that church for over 40 years.

During the morning presentation of Sunday School and Choir Awards the rector, Mr. Carder, presented Mrs. Austin with a gold pin and cross in recognition of her long and devoted service.

After church the Senior Choir and special guests were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Bailey, where they enjoyed a wonderful luncheon banquet prepared by Mrs. Muriel Bailey, choir mother, who presented Mrs. Austin with a beautiful corsage on behalf of the Choir. At the conclusion of the banquet Mr. Bill Gliddon, organist and choir director, presented Mrs. Austin with a record of our High School Glee Club.

In his presentation speech Mr. Gliddon stated: "In the years that I have been with St. George's Choir I have appreciated Mrs. Austin's wonderful help in the soprano section; I have respected her example of reverence and propriety in the church, and I have enjoyed her wise and outspoken remarks and her witty sense of humour. During these years of service, I am sure Mrs. Austin has seen many changes in the affairs of our choir — many moments of frustration and disappointment as well as enjoyment and success. But even through the lean seasons and the stormy situations which church choirs have a tendency to get themselves into, here was a lady who realized that the most important thing is to serve Christ and His Church faithfully, using the talent of music which God had given her to return praise to Him. It is this remarkable loyalty which we recognize today. We do not take those 40 years of service for granted."

The citizens of this community join with Mrs. Austin's many friends and relatives in congratulating her on this special occasion.

Centennial Service

The Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Auditorium will be the scene of the service on Sunday morning that will be what we think unique in this area. True, there has always been a fine spirit of fellowship among members of the different congregations; in fact it is more evident here than in a good many areas. However, this will mark the first time that our churches, without exception, have united in a service of prayer and praise.

The service will commence at 11 a.m., with the guest speaker being the Rev. Bob Rumball. The music will be led by the Centennial Choir.

Participating churches are St. George's Anglican, Lakeside Baptist, St. Anthony's Roman Catholic, Full Gospel Lighthouse, Haliburton United and The Salvation Army.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Don Rennie who has passed his third year in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Toronto with an average of 79%. Don had 12 firsts and three seconds on 15 subjects.

The Haliburton School Of Fine Arts To Hold Fall Courses Here

The Management Committee of the Haliburton School of Fine Arts has now every reason to believe that it will be able to have three courses in landscape painting in oils and water colours this autumn from September 22 to October 1, with the possibility of a course in photography being included at this time.

To help finance the many expenses of planning such a program the School is holding a raffle with the winner having their choice of one of two pastel landscape scenes by Mr. Karl Hanke. These pictures will soon be on display in various business places, both in Haliburton and Minden. Mrs. Carol Duncan, one of the very willing volunteer workers for the School, is in charge of the raffle. The Management Committee consisting of President - Rev. Ronald McCaw, Vice President and Secretary - Mrs. Elizabeth Hobden, Treasurer - Mr. Rea Stinson, and members without portfolio - Mrs. Carole Finn, Mr. Jan Augusteijn and Mr. Karl Hanke, have been very encouraged by the responses which have started to arrive to the thousands of questionnaires it has circulated to the cottage owners and printed in the paper. These responses certainly indicate that there is a definite interest in and need for such a school in this area.

The Management Committee also announces the appointment of its former Treasurer, Mr. Harold (Dan) O'Neil, to the Board of Directors.

Letters To The Editor

Haliburton, Ontario.

The Editor,
Haliburton County Echo,
Haliburton, Ont.

Dear Mr. Feir:

We are using the medium of your newspaper to pay grateful tribute to one of Haliburton County's "unsung heroes".

To be more explicit, we are referring to Mr. Gliddon, B.A. Mus., who gives unstintingly of his time, his talents and himself to further the choral and dramatic ability of the children and young adults in this area.

Needless to say, Mr. Gliddon could, should he care to move to an urban centre, receive much greater remuneration for his services, but he has chosen to remain in the "Highlands" and to work unceasingly to instill in our local youth a love of fine music, and as parents we are most appreciative of all his efforts.

Who knows, through the influence of this talented gentleman, the Highlands may yet produce another Bach, Julie Andrews, or another Mr. Wm. Gliddon.

Signed,

Grateful Parents.

Miss Patricia Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Henry of Halimar Lodge, who graduated from the Toronto General Hospital School of Nursing in May. She is a former student of H.H.S.S.

Marilynn Sharpless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sharpless of Gelert, who graduated from the School of Nursing of Oshawa General Hospital, Oshawa, on Friday, June 2.

Maureen Elizabeth Whyte, B.A. (nee O'Neill) has graduated with honours from Victoria College University of Toronto. She completed Grade 13 at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny O'Neill of Haliburton.

Mr. Arthur Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Henry of Halimar Lodge, who received his Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering at Queen's University in Kingston. He is a former student of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

THE NATION'S BUSINESS

By WILLIAM C. SCOTT, M.P.

It has been a confused and somewhat disconcerting five days in the Parliament of Canada. For, providing a sobering backdrop to all deliberations, there has been the war in the Middle East, which has seen Israel pound her Arab neighbours into submission literally overnight. Observers have watched the progress of that small, but determined, country to the Suez Canal, the River Jordan and the Straits of Tiran.

The question of how we should conduct ourselves as a nation, now and in the future, had people of all parties wringing their hands. And it produced no solutions. The foreign policy debate, occasioned by the Estimates of the External Affairs Department, produced only a series of speeches that failed to come to grips with the problem. One thing, however, was certain — that we have, or the Government has, a considerable job to do in re-thinking our foreign policy. There is an increasing clamour, here and across the country, for Canada to take stands in international disputes. These people argue that we only decrease our prestige among nations and make people uneasy about us. They add that even when we do make our preferences known, we can still work effectively for settlement of disputes. And they may be right. For there was little doubt this week that the pose of Canada — the mediator, was being accepted by almost nobody.

Amid the soul-searching of the Middle East crisis, the House of Commons proceeded slowly and a little uncertainly through its work load in the general direction of the summer recess. Several departmental estimates have already been dealt with, and more remain. But, throughout the debates on the estimates, which are concerned with just where the government plans to spend the people's money in the coming year, there has been widespread feeling that something is missing. Whether it is exclusively connected to the Israeli-Arab war and our foreign policy problems is not clear. Perhaps the malaise that the government obviously feels has been transmitted to the opposition parties.

There is a feeling among many members and observers that the business of government has gone stale, that something is lacking, that the job just isn't being done as well it should be.

This may only be the natural byproduct of the fatigue and restlessness which always results when the House sits into the hot Ottawa summer.

Comment By R. Glen Hodgson, MPP

Estimates of the Department Of University Affairs

In his opening statement, the Honourable W. G. Davis, Minister of University Affairs, reviewed in some detail the purpose of the university, the aims and objectives of higher education, and what we expect from those who undertake higher learning.

The Minister then went on to give the facts and figures on the quantitative and qualitative developments currently taking place in higher education in the Province of Ontario.

The allocation of provincial funds to our universities and colleges for 1967-68 is as follows:

For operating grants $161,000,000
For capital requirements, including special projects for health sciences
For payments on prior debentures	180,000,000
For student awards ..	16,500,000
For research awards ..	18,913,000
For other related costs	750,000
	1,899,000
	$379,062,000

For 1966-67 there were enrolled in the provincially-assisted universities of Ontario 62,850 students. This reflected an increase of 10,150, or 19.2% over the previous year. The total included 20,460 students in first-year programs and 7,400 graduate students.

Current estimates of our institutions call for a total enrollment in 1967-68 of 73,600, an increase which will again exceed 10,000 students. Measured in relative terms this is an increase of 17.1% over the current year and almost 40% in a two-year period. Again first-year enrollment will increase, and close to 23,500 young people are expected to come directly from Grade XIII.

As in all previous years, sufficient places will be available to accommodate these record numbers.

A complete range of university offerings is available to them from work at the diploma level to Ph.D. studies. The following are some examples of the new offerings undertaken by our provincially-assisted institutions over the past twelve months: a new School of Social Work at the University of Windsor; a new undergraduate program in Social Work at Laurentian University, Sudbury; a new School of Nursing at Lakehead University; a new Faculty of Law at the University of Windsor; a new School of Architecture at the University of Waterloo; a new Library School at the University of Western Ontario; a new School of Rehabilitation Medicine at Queen's University, Kingston.

The new Medical Sciences Building at the University of Toronto and the Dental Science Building at the University of Western Ontario are under construction. Both Queen's University and McMaster University have developed plans for their medical sciences buildings to an advanced stage, while development of the health sciences complex at the University of Ottawa is in the planning stage. The new College of Health Services at McMaster is expected to receive its first medical students in September 1968.

In the last year, the Department of University Affairs has dealt with over 260 capital projects submitted by our universities.

With the opening of Erindale

College, the planned pattern of development for Metropolitan Toronto region falls into focus. With the University of Toronto campus in the downtown area; Scarborough campus to the east; Erindale campus to the west; with York University offering programs both at Glendon campus in mid-Toronto and on the enlarging York campus in North York, the two universities are in a strong position to keep pace with what will inevitably be a very sharp increase in demand in and around Metro.

Attention has been given also to these areas of the Province where the characteristics and needs are sharply different. A University has now been established in every major region of Ontario. This not only provides for today's needs but forms the basis for future development. For example, in north-central Ontario a young and vigorous university has been created with the founding of Laurentian University at Sudbury. Its facilities are among the finest in the Province. Yet, in order to encourage those who live in other communities of the region and who may find it more convenient, at least in the initial year of study, to remain within their local community, steps have been taken to develop two affiliated colleges in conjunction with Laurentian. Consequently, using the basic drive and initiative of local committees, Algoma College at Sault Ste. Marie and Nipissing College at North Bay will offer to the residents of their immediate regions, full first-year university programs beginning September 1967.

Because of the great financial demands which such expansion has created both for general operation and for capital development, the Province has become the primary source of income for our universities.

The Minister also announced the appointment of a Government Commission to chart the course of higher education in Ontario until 1980.

The Commission, which will probably require a year or more to complete its task, will consist of three full-time members and ten or twelve part-time members, including one student representative.

The terms of reference call on this Commission to investigate the number of students who should be provided for in the various types of institutions; the kind of institutions needed in the future; the responsibilities each kind of university should have; the possibility of sharing facilities between institutions; the relationships between the various types of institutions and the means by which students could transfer from one to another.

The Commission will examine also costs of providing higher education and recommend means of raising the necessary funds.

The establishment of the Commission was recommended last year by the Committee of Presidents of Universities of Ontario.

Mr. Davis' announcement caught both opposition leaders off guard. Each of them had earlier released texts of speeches demanding that such a Commission be established. The announcement forced hurried amendments to the speeches during the debate.

COPS AND ROBBERS

Some of you, gentle readers, undoubtedly live next door to bookies; others live cheek by jowl with bootleggers. But how many of you can boast of living right next door to a couple of bank robbers? We can.

During the six years we have lived in this house, one of the many banes of my wife's existence has been the house next door. It's a crummy old, brick house, shabby and dilapidated.

The tenants, who change about every six months, are in much the same condition as the house. That is not said unkindly. They are poor. They are tough. It's all they can afford.

Invariably, they have great gaggles of children. Invariably, there is a good deal of screaming, and some cursing, at these tads. Invariably, there is wine drinking and fighting.

But they struggle on, the men in and out of work, the women nanging endless miles of diapers on a clothes line that squeals like a banshee at every yank.

They don't bother me. They're not malicious. One of the women used to come over and use our phone, when she wanted a cab to go and get some beer. One little boy, age three, told me to "go to hell" when I told him to stop using our lawn chair as a trampoline. But nothing serious.

The only thing that bugs me is that the rotten old board fence between the properties keeps falling down. And it always falls on my side. They don't care. It's not their fence, but the landlord's. He doesn't care. So I prop it up. This week, however, things livened up. Last Thursday, a bank in a nearby village was held up by two armed men. They got away with about $6,500.

Roadblocks were thrown up, as they say. My assistant department head, on her way to the dentist, was stopped three times by scowling policemen brandishing shot-guns. She weighs 82 pounds and couldn't even lift $6,500 in $100 bills. I heard all about it Friday morning, at school.

In the meantime, back at the ranch, all hell was breaking loose. First, my wife got a call from the rector's wife.

"How are you? I mean, are you all right?"

"Fine. How is everybody at your place?"

"Fine, but are you all right?"

After more of this, it turned out that the rector's wife, and practically everybody else in town, had heard a rumour, probably springing from an erroneous radio report, that the money from the bank robbery had been found in the attic of the old Cranston home, on Hugel Ave.

It just happens that we live in the old Cranston home. It was once owned by Bill Cranston, a weekly editor who went straight.

My wife did a very sensible thing. She went straight across the street for a cup of coffee with a neighbour. From there, in comparative safety, they watched the show.

Almost immediately, carloads of the curious began driving by our house, slowing down, looking hard.

By this time, three provincial cruisers and the local paddy-wagon were parked in front of our house and the house next door. Cops swarmed about the place next door, with drawn guns. The kids enjoyed it thoroughly, chattering at the police.

Our neighbour's phone rang madly, as people demanded to know whether the Smileys were really in on it.

My wife said she wouldn't look in the attic, unless the neighbour went with her. She refused on the grounds that she was afraid of the squirrels up there.

The police cars were there most of the day. Some kids came back to school from lunch and told their teacher that Mr. Smiley's house was surrounded by police cars. "Something to do with the bank robbery."

Rumours are still flying. "They" say that the money was found next door. "They" say that two men, not the tenants, were arrested there. "They" say that the guns were found.

Well, I hope "they" are all wrong and that the original rumour was right. One of these days, I'm going to get up enough nerve to go up and check the attic. And if the $6,500 is still there, I'll send you a postcard from Crete.

Your Friend, The Man In Blue

A dog may be your best friend at home, but on the road it is the Man in Blue, seen or unseen, who travels with you every minute of every mile. At times he may be an unwelcome sight, especially when he is writing you out a ticket. But even then he is trying to prevent an accident or saving your life. Just after a tragedy or a highway accident there is no more comforting sight than an investigating officer. He gives you a sense of security, perhaps even more so when you see him issuing a ticket to a neighbour who speeds down your street too often.

Welcome or unwelcome, we must call him a friend. Why? Because he is his brother's keeper. He knows no hours, but is there 24 hours of the day seven days a week. He works weekends and Sundays, sometimes also on Holidays. He does not make a lot of money and at times he is called upon to do far beyond that money could ever hope to buy. Yet he does his job with seriousness of purpose and dedication.

He will do such as getting gas for an empty tank for a stranded driver, give aid to a sick person, checking a sleeping motorist, or even changing a tire for a woman. Yes, motorists, he is a real friend, so treat him as one and give him a smile when you meet him. Yes, he is your friend.

Let me explain... Confederation Life's disability benefit

Time off from work, through disability, is no laugh. In fact it's downright unpleasant. There are mounting bills for medical services and medicine, worries over the cost of day-to-day living without an income, and uncertainty about the future. At a time like this, you need a special kind of help - financial. With a Confederation Life Disability benefit you can replace part of your lost earning power.

For more complete information on this, and other Confederation Life policies, telephone me or mail the coupon. I will welcome the opportunity to talk them over with you, in your home or office.

SIR SANFORD FLEMING CAMPUS

Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology, Ontario

Once it was enough just to graduate from High School, as you — or a young person you know — may be doing this month. But High School alone is no longer enough — not in today's complex world where only the well educated can fill the best jobs, earn the best salaries, and enjoy the fullness of life that the pursuit of knowledge for its own sake can provide.

This year about 1,500 young adults will graduate from High School in this area, but less than one in ten of these will go on to university or enter professional training in September.

What will happen to the rest? Many will join a growing number who graduated last year, or ten years ago for that matter, who have found that they do not have the necessary education to achieve their fullest potential. Most of these young citizens, recent and not so recent graduate alike, are capable and intelligent, and they deserve an opportunity to develop their special talents and learn the skills that will be increasingly important in the years ahead.

These are the people the Ontario Government is trying to help to a better future by establishing Sir Sanford Fleming Campus of the Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology in this region. The campus, which will open its doors in temporary quarters in Peterborough on September 11th, does not belong to any specific city, town or district, but rather to a wide region of Central Ontario. Its courses will be designed to meet the needs and preferences of students living within an area stretching from the western edge of Victoria County to the eastern boundary of Hastings County, and running north from approximately Highway 7 to Algonquin Park.

Normally, High School graduation will be the minimum entrance requirement, but this need not bar the way to the person who "dropped out" of High School along the way. Mature students, over 19 years of age who may not have completed their High School training will be considered on their merits.

If you are interested in obtaining further information about Sir Sanford Fleming Campus, please fill in the coupon on this page, and mail it to our office in Peterborough.

WILBERFORCE NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Agnew and their two daughters and Mr. Jack Taylor spent a week in Montreal visiting Expo. They returned on Friday and in the words of Murray it's "fabulous".

We have had a full week of rain and the farmers are smiling, the road around the south side of Otter Lake has become a mud hole, and cottagers living round there had their problems this weekend. Many were unable to take their cars around and had to make other arrangements to get into their cottages, but with the better weather coming (we hope) things should get straightened out.

If your road is not in too good of shape just at present, be patient for a while. The new grader which has been purchased by Monmouth Township should be here in a couple of weeks and then things will be fixed up. Took a look at the Library last Friday, and the librarian, Mrs. Bessie Croft, showed me through and explained the system. I think that it will be a great benefit to the community.

I am afraid that we are all going to get a great shock when the tax bills are issued this year. I understand that taxes will be increased by nearly fifty percent.

I was talking to Mrs. Herlihy last week and hear that her daughter is being married this year. I asked her if she had any sons (not being aware of all the families in the district) and was told "No, but I will have two this year". Nice way to get 'em!

CARNARVON

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thomson of the Homestead, Carnarvon celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on June 10, with friends calling all during the weekend.

On Thursday evening the U.C.W. of Carnarvon Church gave them a party when some 50 guests gathered to wish them many more years of health and happiness. The U.C.W. presented them with a tray, table centre and a corsage for Dorothy and a Boutonniere for Dick. They also received many gifts from friends and also gifts of money.

The three-tier wedding cake was made by Marjorie Metcalf and decorated by Minnie Sisson. One of the highlights was a telephone call from their daughter from South Pasadena, California when they had a chat with all their family. We all wish them many years of happiness together.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Windsor and Sandra of Belleville, accompanied by Mrs. Windsor's mother from Port Arthur and her aunt from Hope, B.C., spent Wednesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McKay were in Cooksville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harrison have returned from spending a week visiting in Hartley, Peterborough, Trenton and Aurora.

Mr. Ron Russell was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mitts of Belleville spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Windsor.

in unity", followed by prayer by the President, Mrs. Barr.

A hymn sing was enjoyed. The Bible Reading was taken by Mrs. Madill, Luke 7: 36-50. A meditation on "Forgiveness" was taken by Mrs. Brooks. The Roll Call was answered with a Bible verse containing the word "forgive".

A few minutes was taken to compare housecleaning to our spiritual lives. Just as we do our spring cleaning, throwing away trash, so should we apply the searchlight of God's truth to our individual lives throwing out selfishness, prejudice and jealousy. When we have our house cleaned then we should furnish it with love and service to our fellow man, putting Christ at the steering wheel of our lives not on the spare tire for emergency only.

A very good report of the Sick and Visiting Committee was given.

IN MEMORIAM

GREGORY — In loving memory of a dear grandfather, William Gregory, who passed away three years ago, June 18, 1964. His helping hand was always first to render any aid he could; His voice was always raised in praise.

His words were wise and good. Dear Grandpa, since you have gone away,

The ones you loved so true, Try hard to carry on the way We know you'd want us to.

—Lovingly remembered by granddaughter Lilian and Family.

HIE — In memory of a dear husband, Floyd Hie, who passed away June 13, 1964.

A million times I've missed you, Floyd,

A million times I've cried; If my love could have saved you, You never would have died.

It broke my heart to lose you But you did not go alone, For part of me went with you The day God called you home.

—Ever remembered by wife Elva.

JOHNSTON — In loving memory of my dear wife and mother, Jessie Johnston, who passed away June 16, 1960.

In our home she is remembered, Sweet memories cling to her name;

Those who loved her in life dearly Still love her in death the same.

—Lovingly remembered by husband Sid and Family.

Mankinen - Scott May Nuptials

Calvary Pentecostal Church, Lindsay was the setting for the pretty wedding of Karen Lois Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Scott of 127 Durham St. W., Lindsay, and George William Mankinen, son of Mr. N. Mankinen and the late Mrs. Mankinen of Haliburton. The marriage took place on Saturday, May 20, 1967 at 2:30 p.m.

Reverend D. W. Ellis was the officiating clergyman. The soloist, Miss Patricia Gill of Lindsay, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. John Madill of Peterborough, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony, and "Each for the Other" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white. The bodice and long lily-point sleeves were of French guipure lace and from the empire waistline the graceful A-line skirt of bridal satin was enhanced with overlays of guipure lace. Her long heart-shaped train of lace-edged satin was gathered to a large satin bow at the waistline. Her bouffant elbow-length veil was held in place by a crown of iridescent crystals. She carried a white Bible with a white cymbidium orchid, pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honour, Miss Cheryl Scott, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Ingrid Mankinen of Toronto, sister of the groom, Miss Gloria Ellis of Lindsay, friend of the bride, Miss Patricia Gill of Lindsay, friend of the bride, wore gowns of puppy rayon with empire waistline and A-line skirts. Their lace trains were gathered with a large bow to the lace band at waistline. They wore circlets of white daisies in their hair, and matching white gloves and shoes.

The maid of honour's gown was of centennial rose colour and she carried a cascade of white shasta daisies and pink sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of soft lilac colour and carried semi-cascades of white shasta daisies.

Miss Ronnette MacGregor of Toronto, flowergirl, was charming in her centennial rose gown identical to the maid of honour. She carried a white basket of shasta daisies and pink sweetheart roses.

Master Charles Mankinen of Haliburton, brother of the groom, was ring bearer. He carried a white lace-edged satin heart-shaped cushion.

The best man was Robert Switzer of Lindsay, friend of the groom. The ushers were Robt. Woodcock of Haliburton, cousin of the groom, Stanislaus Chenga of Mavadii, Tanzania, friend of the groom, and Paul Mattinen of Windsor, friend of the groom.

The Masonic Temple was the setting for the reception where the bride's mother received her guests wearing a pistachio green sheath style dress of sparkle crepe, matching stole and hat with black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's aunt, Mrs. Neil Woodcock of Haliburton, assisted wearing an orange ice coloured suit with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a honeymoon trip through Maine, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the Gaspé the bride chose for her going away outfit a multi-coloured dress of wispy voile with matching coat and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

On return the newlyweds will reside at 61 Robinson St., Peterborough.

Out of town guests were from Gooderham, Haliburton, Peterborough, Oshawa, Belleville, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Toronto, Galt, Windsor, Halesbury, Frankford, Port Perry, Omamee and Oakwood.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honoured with miscellaneous showers by Mrs. C. Sisson, employees of Canadian Library Supply of Toronto, Reverend and Mrs. D. Ellis and congregation of Calvary Pentecostal Church, and also a crystal shower from bridal attendants and friends.

Uncle Dudley's Column

I have noted with much interest and satisfaction of the apparent success in attendance at Expo '67. It would appear that the results are exceeding the expectations of the sponsors — which I suppose takes in every loyal Canadian citizen.

The greatest item of interest to me is the favourable report from our American cousins. All seem to agree it is much superior to their New York effort of a few years back.

The impact on the world at large will be very significant and can scarcely be accurately measured by any yard stick, but the number of visitors from the many overseas lands will take home with them a remembrance of their experience that will be mirrored in a much better knowledge of our country, which is all to the good.

Having in mind the capabilities of our industrial force at the present and in the future, we must look to more and more export trade and trade needs must be a two way street. Many countries short of dollars are rich in resources, much of which are needed and can be used.

Any effort to give aid to these have not areas is well spent money, time and talent.

All in all, this Exhibition as a showcase for our products should be very beneficial.
